

Fellowship Program Scholarship: 2005-06 Research Paper Topics

- Aarthi Anand: Immunity Grants, Obligation to Provide Effective Remedies and Consequences for Extrajudicial Killings
- Reena Arora: Combating Torture in India for Disadvantaged Groups
- Amelie Baudot: The Evolving Doctrine of Unilateral Declarations: A Practical Analysis
- Christen Broecker: The End of Amnesty? Developments in and Implications of Recent International Efforts to Combat Impunity
- Jennifer Chen: Chinese Multinational Enterprises in Africa – Exporting Human Rights Abuses?
- Kristin Connor: The Ghanaian Domestic Violence Bill: Protecting Women from Economic Abuse
- Matthew Dewitz: Four Exemplary Contributions of Fiction Literature to the Growth of a Human Right to Health
- Benjamin Dalle: Transparency and its Significance for Enhancing Accountability at UNHCR
- Fernanda Doz Costa: Transitional Justice And Poverty
- Mitra Ebadollahi: Let's Make a Plan: The Role of Structural Interdicts in Securing Socio-Economic Rights in South Africa
- Leslie Gold: Standards for State Responsibility in International Law in Instances of Collusion
- Colin Grey: Unwelcome Guests from Nowhere: Procedural Justice and Refugee Status Determination
- Jennifer Hainsfurther: Using CEDAW to Protect the Human Rights of Migrant Workers
- Andrew Hudson: An Unfinished Task: Providing Comprehensive Reparations to the Indonesian “1965 Victims” of State Persecution
- Jennifer Insley-Pruitt: Collective Reparations in the Inter-American Court of Human Rights
- Amanda Klasing: Can the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Provide a Normative Framework for Transitioning Societies in Latin America? – Lessons Learned from Post-TRC Peru
- Alexandra Khrebtukova: A Call to Freedom: Fears and Opportunities in International Special Regimes
- Christian Leathley: International Arbitration and Human Rights
- Louis Lipner:
- David Livshiz: Undoing Nicaragua: Eliminating the State Action Requirement from the Law of Self-Defense
- Doreen Lustig: Reading the ILC Fragmentation Project: A Positive Account of International Law or a proposal for General Principles?
- Tafadzwa Pasipanodya: Rwandan Participants at the ICTR: Their Role in Justice & Reconciliation
- Nadya Salcedo: The Aguas Argentinas v. Argentine Republic Arbitration – The Test of How Far Bilateral Investment Treaty Arbitration Clauses Can be Stretched to Include Human Rights
- Emily Scharfman: The Road to Hell is Paved With Good Intentions: How Calls for Criminal Measures in the South African HIV/AIDS Context will Disproportionately Impact Women
- Ronli Sifris: Legality of Indonesian Truth and Reconciliation Commission
- Megan Thomas: Interpreting the Right to Health in the Context of Pregnant Women Living with HIV/AIDS
- Quang Trinh: International organizations and the corporate veil: Some unfinished business in the ILC's work on state responsibility
- David Young: Case Study: The Prosecutor v. Latif Gashi